Business Spotlight:

Carter's Cabin Rentals

Walt Carter would come to the Ashton Area from California for about 15 years to elk hunt. One time he asked Tracy, his wife to join him and see Ashton. Well, it wasn't love at first site until he showed her Greentimber and our lovely forest; then she was sold! After selling his rice farm in 1994 Walt and Tracy moved from Gridley, California to Ashton/Greentimber, bought a cabin and settled. Needing some work Tracy opened her business of "Greentimber Therapeutic Massage". What better place to relax and let it all go than in the woods in a cozy cabin! They soon realized that with much company it might be nice to purchase and remodel a little cabin down the road from them as a guest house. 1997 was the year they remodeled their first cabin and realized that people would rent it from them for a weekend or a couple of weeks. Then in 2006 they were given the opportunity to purchase the bigger cabin next door to them which they turned into another rental.

Both cabin's are fully furnished with well stocked full size kitchens, bedrooms, and bathrooms. Both cabins are equipped with a washer, dryer, and all linens are provided. They're a home away from home. Except for the added peaceful, private, and relaxing atmosphere.

In the summertime enjoy the beautiful groomed grounds with fire pits, a game of horseshoes, or badminton/volleyball nets ready for fun or enjoy a beautiful nature hike. In the wintertime these quaint cabins are nestled at the head of a snow machine trail or you can cross country ski to Fall River Ridge and/or Mesa Falls.

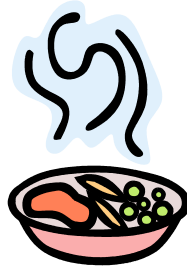

So let Walt, Tracy and their happy dogs; Beau & Peanut be your hosts and stay at the Carter's Cabins! These "little hidden jewels" will be just what the doctor ordered from the stress and strain of work and the busyness of life. And amidst the cozy, comfy cabin life, you may even be able to schedule a massage! Call Carter's today at 652-7234. You can also check out the accommodations on their website at: www.cartersidahocabins.com
