Business Spotlight:

It is our pleasure to welcome and spotlight one of Ashton's newest restaurant. Opening on January 16, 2012, El Rincon was owner Jesus Nunez's second restaurant. When Jesus came to America in 1989 he began working in a restaurant and new that is where he belonged. This was his American dream!

Four years ago, Jesus opened El Jaliciense in St. Anthony. Then when the building became available in Ashton, the opportunity presented itself and Jesus went for it! He enjoys Ashton, the people are nice and it is a nice quiet town.

Jesus would like people to know that they serve breakfast, lunch, and dinner. El Rincon offers 3 very affordable and delicious breakfast specials, ranging from a simple hash browns, eggs and bacon, to French toast, and number 3 including pancakes with 2 eggs, and bacon or sausage for a low price of $5.19 for either special. There is a full breakfast menu as well. Daily lunch specials are offered from 11-3, followed by daily dinner specials from 3-9pm. Friday & Saturday El Rincon is opened until 10. So when everyone else have snuck their way home for the night, you can go and enjoy some yummy chips, salsa, & beans or a yummy fried ice-cream or some flan. This is a great idea for a nice date or a well deserved treat from surviving your day. So, go out and treat yourself to a wonderful meal at El Rincon or call for an order to go at 652-7225 today!
