Business Spotlight: Baxter Funeral Home

Thinking of being a mortician does not sound like a dream job for everyone, but for Bruce Baxter that is exactly what he enjoys. While attending college his uncles Bert & Garth Flamm became in need of some extra help with their business so they called on Bruce to help them out. After some time with the uncles, Bruce decided that this was his niche and went to school at Mount Hood Community College in Gresham, Oregon to become a licensed mortician in 1997. He opened Baxter Funeral Home in 2001 here in Ashton bringing along his uncle Garth to be his partner. He expressed his favorite part of his job is getting to meet and work with the people of the community during their time of need. We as a Chamber of Commerce are pleased to spotlight Baxter Funeral Home at this time and grateful they are a part of our community!

Reflecting on this past year, there have been many young and old who have passed on. Many were hard to let go of at the time. We appreciate Bruce for his loving kindness and professionalism during the time we as a community shared many tears!

Information deadline for the Newsletter is due by 8 AM on the Saturday prior to the first and third Tuesday of the month. Please email anything you would like posted to info@ashtonidaho.com or leave a message at 652-3355.
