4th of July Theme Contest

Although March is coming in like a lion and summertime seems far away, it is time for the Ashton Chamber of Commerce to begin their plans for our wonderful festive 4th of July celebration! We are having a contest for the class with the best idea for our 4th of July parade. This theme will be the criteria for the floats in the parade. It will appear on all our fliers and the winning class will receive a pizza and an ice cream party! All entries need to be submitted to Rachel Hatton by Tuesday, March 18th! Questions? Call Rachel @ 652-0144.

Business Spotlight:

ASHTON Quick Stop

It is our pleasure to spotlight one of the newer assets to our community! Almost 3 years ago Melvin Rudd came to town and purchased the building that used to be known as Valley Wide Travel Plaza and changed the name to Ashton Quick Stop. He has also added a Subway to the convenient gas station that already is home to Hot Stuff Pizza. Connie Hansen is still managing the business and they have a really great staff! They also have all sorts of snacks and drinks for the road, including freshly baked cookies, cinnamon-babies, lots of fountain options, and fresh coffee. So whether you're needing something to eat for your meal that day or just a fun snack for the road, Ashton Quick Stop has you covered! This is also the place to purchase your fun Idaho souvenirs and those Fish & Game licenses you need to enjoy our beautiful rivers. So, we think it is time you make your way over to Ashton Quick Stop, fill your tank up with some Exxon Gas, and get something yummy for your tummy. For pizza orders to go or for other inquiries call them at 538-9088. They are located at 921 N. Hwy 20. Their winter business hours are Monday-Saturday 6am-9pm; Sundays 7am-7pm.
