Got Quilts?

A Randy Palmer family quilt fundraiser is underway! Some ladies are working to gather quilts to be sold at a craft fair at the Buffalo Run in Island Park during Labor Day weekend and at the Spirit of Christmas here in Ashton the first Saturday in December. They are hoping to get enough baby quilts, lap quilts, receiving blankets, quilt bags, pillows, camping quilts, etc. donated to sell at these two craft fairs to help Lindsay and her family. Please contact: Nelda Hammer@652-7617, Karen Palmer @ 652-0005, Aleana Gunnell @ 558-7553, Chris Willis @ 221-1453, or Colleen Kidd @ 359-2415 if you have any quilts to donate to be sold.

In conjunction with this quilt fundraiser a local business, Bird Dog Embroidery would like to offer FREE stitching or label making for any quilt donated in memory of Randy Palmer. Please contact Michelle Martin at Bird Dog Embroidery located inside the Chocolate Moose so she can personalize your donated quilts and blankets. She can also be contacted by calling her at 652-7600.

Business Spotlight:

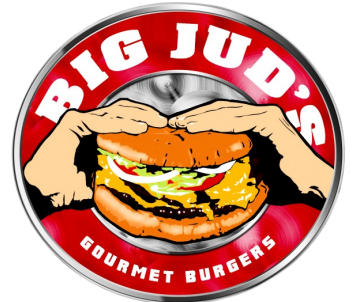

Are you tired of being the cook at home? Well, maybe you need a night off? Get on over to Big Jud's Diner!

They've been in business for nearly 20 years.

Owner Todd Bossard

has made this business a favorite of the locals. He also is a great person to call when you have a party to cater. Just have Todd cook your meat for you, roast beef, pulled pork, you name it, Todd will make it good. Todd has recently taught his son Jordan the trade of running the business, as Todd has recently taken a position at the Ashton Living Center as Head Nurse. Jordan is doing a great job filling his dad's shoes and making sure the gourmet burgers are at their best! Big Jud's is famous for their 1lb. burger and each patty is weighed individually so no one is jipped in any way! And you have got to love their fresh cut fries made from Ashton grown potatoes and dipped in their delicious fry sauce! Can't stay long, order your lunch or dinner to go. Just call 652-7806. They are open 11-10pm in the summer Mon.-Sat. and 11-9 in the winter.

Dear Parents of Second Graders this last school year (2014-2015),

If you remember you were asked to send money for your child to be used during math. Well just so you are aware, that money at the end of the school year in June was donated to the Randy Palmer fund and to the Red Hats who are donating it back to the Ashton Elementary Library fund. The money is donated to some community cause each year, and this is where it went this year.

Thank You, Mrs. Parkinson & Mrs. Burrell
