Spotlight:

Have you noticed something new in front of the Ashton Community Center and Library? We at the Ashton Area Chamber of Commerce are very excited to see the marquee in front of the Community Center/Library. This project has been a year in the making.

Dave's Jubilee wanted to donate their old sign to the Chamber to advertise events in the community. We also thought a marquee sign at the other end of town, which wasn't moving would be beneficial for the many that drive down Main Street every day. As we sought our options and discussed our desires with Planning and Zoning, we learned we needed to seek other options for locations than we had thought previous, because the Chamber of Commerce does not own property. We approached the Fremont County Library Board in early spring this year and introduced the idea to them of a marquee sign with permission to use their property to place it. So, the Ashton Area Chamber of Commerce and Fremont County Library district came to an agreement and now we have a marquee in front of the library. Your Ashton Area Chamber of Commerce will take care of putting up the advertising and treat it similar to this newsletter. To advertise for a week it will cost $5 payable to the Ashton Area Chamber of Commerce. The project could not of been completed without a lot of helpers! We at the Ashton Area Chamber of Commerce would like to send out a great BIG Thank You to the Ashton Rotary Club and their volunteers, to David Clark, Fall River Electric and Fall River Propane, to the private donations that were given, to Hannah McCausey running the flea market to help raise funds and her volunteers that week, and to the Ashton Urban Renewal Agency and their help. It was a pleasure working with Planning and Zoning, Fremont County Library Board and the many others who helped us carry this project out. And a Thank you to Dave's Jubilee for donating the sign to provide another way to advertise and communicate our many wonderful events in our community. Thank You all!

We think it turned out really nice and know it will help those visiting our city to know where our Ashton Community Center and Library are located.

For more information about getting your event up please contact the Chamber of Commerce at 652-3355 or Rachel Hatton at 652-0144.
