Business Spotlight:

Disaster Restoration decided to open up shop in Ashton in January three years ago. They are excited to be in an area where the people are like family. They are family owned and operated. Owners Justin and Brooke Hunter moved to the area five years ago, and loved it so much, they decided that's where they wanted their business to be. Disaster Restoration operates 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, and specialize in Fire, Water and Mold Restoration and Cleanup. They can also handle any reconstruction they run into along with cleaning residential and commercial buildings. Whether it's a busted pipe, a leaking shower head, a leaking roof or plumbing issues, they are the ones to call for your local restoration needs. They have the certified training and know how to get the job done right...the first time! They pride themselves in honesty and integrity and know that owning a home or business is a monumental endeavor. They understand how important your property is to you, and comprehend that a damaged home must be restored properly and in a timely manner without cutting quality to allow you and your family to get back to normal as soon as possible. They will do absolutely everything possible to ensure your family is safe, and your damage is taken care of the right way, the first time. They work with all insurance companies to help you minimize your stress in a disaster. Disaster Restoration believes that true success is helping you in your time of need. Let the Professionals Handle Your Disaster right here in ASHTON! Call: 208-360-1238 for your restoration needs!
